

Affordable Housing Work Session

Urban Development
May 11, 2020

- The future impact of developments cycling out of affordability requirements
- Site identification, financing and construction challenges with new affordable housing development
- Developing the pro forma
- The cost per door of developing new affordable housing projects
- Existing tax exemption programs
- The proposed TIF rebate program and benefits of program flexibility and mixed developments