

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, a community without abuse, violence, and suicide is a dream we all share; and

WHEREAS, any form of mistreatment of another is abuse, and all people have the moral and legal right to live free of abuse and violence; and

WHEREAS, we recognize that respect for ourselves and others is key to developing healthy relationships at every age and in all circumstances; and

WHEREAS, the principal of non-violent resolution of conflict must be taught to our children and practiced within each of our families; and

WHEREAS, verbal abuse such as name calling, insulting, and belittling frequently escalates into simple force like pushing, grabbing or slapping, with the worst scenario being escalation to rage, serious violence, and even murder; and

WHEREAS, self-harm and suicide must be acknowledged as a serious public health crisis as numbers of victims continue to escalate in children, teens, and adults; and

WHEREAS, together with communities around the country and overseas, recognize the Hands & Words Are Not For Hurting Project's Purple Hands Pledge® is an effective tool in abuse, violence, and suicide prevention education; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Julie Hoy, Mayor of the City of Salem, do hereby proclaim October 19-25, 2025, as

and encourage residents to join Hands & Hearts to unite as a family and a community to pledge that "I will not use my hands or my words for hurting myself or others."

DATED this thirteenth day of October, 2025.

Julie Hoy
Mayor
