The day a transient checks out of the transient lodging shall not be included in determining the period of occupancy if the transient is not charged rent for that day by the operator. Any such individual so occupying space in transient lodging shall be deemed to be a transient until a period of 30 days has expired unless there is an agreement in writing between the operator and the occupant providing for a longer period of occupancy and the occupancy actually extends for more than 30 consecutive calendar days. A person who pays for lodging on a monthly basis, irrespective of the number of days in such month, shall not be deemed a transient.
