What prompted your interest in applying to serve as a board or commission member?

Working on the Disability Task Force reminded me how much I enjoy working on the governance end of things.

In my personal live I am a disabled female, who is queer and just wants to help our city. I have multiple years of experience on different task forces and committees. While competing as a professional swimmer I started working in the governance side of USA Swimming as an Athlete Representative for Pacific Northwest Swimming (PNS), then when I moved to the Olympic and Paralympic training center I was nominated and became and Athlete Representative for the Disability Committee of USA Swimming and was an Athlete Representative for my last 4 years as a swimmer.
