I was recently termed out of Citizen Police Review Board and am looking for another way to volunteer with the City of Salem. With being on the Citizen Police Review Board and still a member of the Mayors International Council I thought the Human Rights Commission would be a natural fit.

I love Salem. I was born and raised in Salem. I want the best for the citizens of Salem. I have specific insight into several sectors of the community through my volunteering such as individuals with dementia, our Latino community, the early learning community, to our local police.
